Our Members

PSA welcomed Hisense and Pioneer in mid 2008 as new members. Their involvement will help to further broaden industry involvement and build a strong case for cost-effective TV recycling in Australia.

As at September 2008, PSA has 16 member companies:

- BenQ Australia
- Castel Electronics (Orion and Daewoo brands)
- Dick Smith Electronics
- Hagemeyer Brands Australia (JVC brand)
- Hitachi Australia
- LG Electronics Australia
- NEC Australia
- Panasonic Australia
- Philips Electronics Australia
- Samsung Electronics Australia
- Sanyo Oceania
- Sharp Corporation of Australia
- Sony Australia
- TCL

Several other companies (and brands) have been encouraged to join PSA, however they have yet to respond or become members. These companies include TEAC Australia, Yale Prima Pty Ltd (Akai, RCA, Telefunken, etc), and Pebble Electronics (Conia, HICON and Konka). It is vital that TV suppliers get involved in national programs to address solid and hazardous waste concerns arising from their products.
